SOUTH MICHIGAN

LEAGUE BRIEFS

JACKSON—President James Frank of the South Michigan league will call a meeting of the club owners in the near future to make final plans for the extension of the circuit by admitting Toledo and South Bend. Frank is gratified by the feeling he has uncovered in both of these cities.

SAGINAW—Ducky Holmes, manager of the Saginaw Ducks in the Southern Michigan league, will have the smallest training squad ever leaving Saginaw when he takes his players to Dayton for the spring work-outs on April 12. Including Holmes there will be but 17 players.

KALAMAZOO—Emil Zulz of Niles, an outfielder, is among the rookies signed by Manager Wagner for his team this spring. Among the other recruits who have just affixed their names to contracts are Earl Hoyt of Albion, a first sacker, and Elmer Wolf of Decatur, an outfielder.

BATTLE CREEK—Fans in the food city are attempting to persuade Danny Collins, former manager in a number of S. M. cities, to assist Edward McKernan, who lies ill in a Cinnati hospital. McKernan, the idol of the fans here, is unable to attend the season in any event and the bugs here want Collins to do the early work. Collins and McKernan are great friends.

JONES WINS FIRST POCKET BILLIARD GAME

Jones defeated Holland 100 to 90 in the opening game of the annual pocket billiard tourney conducted in Golden Mann's billiard room on E. Jefferson st. Each man was playing under a 10 point handicap. The second game was won by Hall from Mason by a score of 100 to 92.

This afternoon Marlock and Greenberg had a clash from scratch and in the evening McCombs and Crumpacker and Adamson and Killmer are scheduled.

There are 32 entries in the tournament and it is said that some of the best available talent is represented. The elimination style will be followed in the play and the winner of the last game will be champion of the tournament.
